I also understand that the awarding of the In-District Tuition Scholarship is contingent upon funding and priority will be based on the Federal processing date of the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). Further, I understand that the scholarship is only available during the fall and spring semesters of my freshman year of my enrollment at ECCC and is contingent on meeting the conditions as described below.

Through the generosity of Frances Gaines Blum Slagle, East Central Community College (ECCC) Class of 1940, the ECCC Foundation is pleased to support the Children of Andrew & Inez Gaines: Marjorie Mansfield, Mary George Pace, Frances Gaines Blum Slagle, Virginia Gaines Smith, and Geneva Gaines Boring In-District Tuition Scholarship. This In-District Tuition Scholarship is a financial aid program for incoming freshmen residing in the five-county service area that covers the remaining balance of tuition for eligible students to attend ECCC after applying federal, state, & third-party aid; ECCC Institutional Scholarships; and ECCC Foundation Scholarships to the student's account. This scholarship serves as a "gap-filler scholarship" for freshman students who do not receive and/or qualify for sources of funding sufficient to cover the cost of tuition. Non-tuition related expenses such as fees, supplies, books, room, and board will not be covered by the guaranteed tuition scholarship. A student who is awarded any other scholarship(s) and/or grant(s) will receive credit for those funds before the application of In-District Tuition Funds. The scholarship is awarded for a maximum of two (2) consecutive semesters (fall/spring) during a student's freshman year. Awarding of In-District Tuition Scholarships is contingent upon funding.
