THE COLLEGE

In 1928, the Legislature of the State of Mississippi adopted the first basic laws for the organization and operation of the Mississippi public junior colleges. East Central Community College (ECCC) opened its doors to a freshman class of 20 students for the first regular session in September of 1928. In March of 1939, ECCC was first accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools (SACS). The college is currently accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges (SACSCOC) to award the Associate Degree. Individuals may contact the Commission on Colleges at 1866 Southern Lane, Decatur, Georgia 30033-4097 or call 404-679-4500 for questions about the accreditation of East Central Community College. Degrees or certificates are granted upon completion of program requirements. ECCC is also a member of the Mississippi Association of Community and Junior Colleges (MACJC) and the American Association of Community Colleges (AACC). Enrollment, including part-time students, exceeds 2,700 students each term. Evening courses and summer programs are offered throughout the five-county support district. The college also operates the Philadelphia-Neshoba County Career Technical Center located in Philadelphia, Mississippi. ECCC is supported by five counties located in east central Mississippi: Leake, Neshoba, Newton, Scott, and Winston.
