WORK STUDY JOB ASSIGMENT PROCEDURES

Work Study job assignments are made on a first come, first served basis with priority being given to the student who met the priority deadline. Applications are reviewed for specific job requests and also skills and/or abilities to perform said job. Awards are made until all jobs are filled and/or the limited funds have been expended. To qualify for federal work study, students must have financial need and meet all federal Title IV requirements for financial aid. Limited funds for students who do not meet the federal guidelines are available through institutional work study which is funded by the college.
