

EAST CENTRAL

COMMUNITY COLLEGE

Winston County

NOW OFFERING:

Manufacturing Skills Basic

REGISTRATION

Going on now

Must be 18

Must be a High School Graduate

COST

$75.00

INSTRUCTOR

Ross Easley

CLASS LOCATION

Louisville Career

Advancement Center

860 Church Street

Louisville, MS

(located inside Taylor Logistics Building)

CLASS INFORMATION

This 96-hour course, covers five major areas of knowledge with the intent of training the student to be a “shop floor” employee. Topics covered include Basic Computer Literacy, Blueprint Reading, Precision Measurement and an introduction to manufacturing improvement methods that include lean manufacturing, quick changeover, 5S, teamwork and problem solving.

CERTIFICATIONS INCLUDE

CPR AND OSHA 10

Students must complete the WorkKeys assessment at a minimum of a Silver level to participate in this course.

CONTACT INFORMATION:

Melissa Allman

ECCC Personal Development Specialist/Louisville Site Coordinator

Telephone: 662.773.2292 • Email: mallman@ecc.edu

East Central Community College Workforce Development Center

Lucretia Williams, Director

P.O. Box 129 • Decatur, MS 39327

Phone: 601.635.2111, Ext. 432 • Phone: 1.877.462.3222, Ext. 432

Fax: 601.635.4031 • www.eccc.edu/workforce-development

East Central Community College is an equal educational and employment opportunity provider.